AUGUST 2003

News & Muse

Hello and welcome to the August edition of Focal Plane. Have you ever wondered about your own approach to finding the photograph? Do you remember how you took your best images?

There are a handful of photographs in my modest collection that I put up there. You know the ones. The ones almost worthy of putting on the wall. The ones you'll show friends as a piece of art you are proud of. The ones you really love. Well I was thinking about this, and mine all have some things in common.

None of them were constructed. Wasn't frantically assembling camera on tripod before the sun came over the horizon. Wasn't wishing that red coat would move a bit to the left. Just happened to be in the right place and time and saw the image long before looking through the eyepiece. For each one, when I looked through the lens, the excitement was bubbling.

I think that as time and experience allow, these instances happen more frequently. Less effort can be put into ensuring the conditions are right, the film is right, the camera settings are right... and we can then just see the image.

North Shore Salon Awarded 7 APS Members

Those that took advantage of the open invitation to attended the slide showing of the Award winners were treated to 120 of the very best New Zealanders have to offer. To start there was a fascinating talk on composition and using the Fibonacci Mathematical Series. Not heard of it? All revealed next month.

The Slide Show was inspirational. For my part, I was fixed rigid in my chair, eyes glued to the screen, didn't want it to finish. In his speech, past PSNZ president Brian Cudby made the comment; "I believe the North Shore Photographic Salon to be the most difficult in New Zealand in which to be accepted".

Our patron Jack Sprosen's AV display of the awarded slides, once again showed his seemingly endless talent for presentation.

Well done to all those members who received awards in the North Shore National Salon. They include Alan Bilham, Alka Krisson, Dharmendra Krisson, Jack Sprosen, Janet McLeod, John McCallum and Peter Merrick.

New Members

The Auckland Photographic Society has five new members this month. A warm welcome to

Andrea Pryce
Brent Winstone
Chantal Lalonde
Chris Schreuder
Roger Hammond

We're looking forward to getting to know you a little and trust you will enjoy your time with us.

Thanks

Thanks to the two Judges Ann Bolton and Chris Flaunty for their judging at our last meeting. The combined approach of two people judging simultaneously was different to what we have been used to. This was Anne and Chris' first effort at judging for a club and they must be commended for what is a challenging experience!

Upcoming Subjects / Competitions

Aug 21st Three of a Kind (Trophy) & Open

Described as a set of three images:

- Strongly linked to each other
- Often telling a story

The three images can be mounted together or mounted separately (slide separately). A set of three is considered a single entry. Therefore it is possible to enter three sets of three images.

Aug 31st 'The Canon Online Award'

Images submitted bi-monthly Aug, Oct, Dec, Feb, Apr & June. The first entry for the Canon online Competition closes. Contact Bill Hodges bhodges@xtra.co.nz for more info.

Sept 18th My Personal Style and Open

This is an opportunity to present your own personal style.

Oct 16th Portrait (Trophy) and Open

Maybe of a human or an animal.

Hint: Judges are always keen to see that the photograph communicates with the viewer, and is not merely a historical record.

Do you have a favourite Competition Subject or Workshop that you would like to see held at APS?

- Here's your chance! We are seeking suggestions for Competition Subjects and for Practical Workshops for next years syllabus. Email info@aps.net.nz or speak to a committee member with your suggestion.

The Parkin style is distinct. Initially his work developed from fractionalism series such as the musicians, men in black, forbidden fruit and off the wall art show the strength and power of fractionalism. Parkin's off the wall style of work is engineered, almost sculptural and three-dimensional. From whatever angle one views an off the wall you are treated to a very different perspective of the work even the time of day and length of shadow make an impact.

I look forward to seeing you on 22nd Aug. Please note we will be pre-selling the paintings so if you are interested in his work please let us know in advance.

Website Update

Members Gallery on the Website

The club would like to extend an invitation to all members who are interested in having their own gallery page on the APS website. We understand that not everyone has the resource to create their own webpage...so here's your chance! This is a great opportunity to display some of your best work and a wider range of images that you would like to share with other members, friends/relatives and the wider community.

You can include five of your best images and will also have the opportunity to talk more about your images and techniques, should you so wish but this is not compulsory.

To give you an idea of how your page can look, check the Gallery link on our website and take a look at Alan and Dharmendra's pages.

http://www.aps.net.nz/site_pages/galleries/gallery.html

Your page will be maintained by the APS Webmaster, but it will be your responsibility to provide images in the correct format. As a guide, we would expect the standard of the images to be equivalent to those images entered into club competitions.

To register your interest please contact Alka Krisson at (webmaster@aps.net.nz) or phone on (09)817-9899.
